

Weingarten Right to Union Representation

If this discussion could in any way lead to discipline or alter my working conditions, I request the presence of my union representative or attorney. I further request that this meeting be postponed for a reasonable amount of time until my representative is available. Without representation, I choose not to participate in this discussion. If you order me to participate under threat of discipline and I do so, I will do so under protest.